Pays Visit To U. S.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—The most famous of men of letters of Japan, student of and later translator of Lafcadio Hearn and bearer of a gift from Mrs. Kojima—Professor Tanabe, who is visiting the University of California with whom he is personally acquainted. He will go from here to the Yosemite for a time, thence to New York and to the principal professors of the Joshi

Gakushuin in Tokyo. This institution is the School of the Peers and educates the daughters of the wealthiest and foremost families of the Japanese nobility. There are more than 700 students in grammar, intermediate and high grades, with more than fifty teachers. The professor, while in San Francisco, will visit many of the professors of the University of California with whom he is personally acquainted. He will go from here to the Yosemite for a time, thence to New York and to the principal professors of the Joshi

RESTORATION OF MISSIONS URGED AT N.S.G.W. MEET

Grand Parlor Session in Stockton Also Advocates Saving All Landmarks.

STOCKTON, April 18.—Restoration of California missions and the preservation of all historic landmarks were topics discussed today at the second session of the Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West in the auditorium here. Today's session was taken up principally with business meetings. The Native Sons, it was pointed out, have been responsible for the restoration of several missions at points throughout the state and the retaining and preservation of several landmarks, and it was decided to do all that was possible in carrying on this work.

Stockton's citizens, civic and commercial organizations, city officials and more than 1000 Native Sons are working to make the forty-fourth annual grand parlor session of the order the most successful in history. Native Sons are in command of the city and that their grand parlor sessions and other activities may be pleasing to every delegate is the unanimous desire of Stockton's citizens.

Old Folks Need Blood-Iron Phosphate

Often Makes Them Look and Feel Twenty Years Younger

Young, strong and vigorous at seventy would be the rule and not the exception if you only kept your nerves strong and your blood rich in iron. If you want to cover your frame with solid flesh, if you want the courage, strength, health and endurance of thirty or thirty years ago, go to Owl Drug Co. or any other druggist and get a package of Blood-Iron Phosphate and take one tablet with each meal. Nothing that we know of will so quickly and surely restore your nervous energy and vitality as positively supply that iron which makes rich, red, strength-building blood. So positive are we that Blood-Iron Phosphate will make you feel and look younger, stronger and more vigorous that we authorize Owl Drug Co. and all other druggists to refund the purchase price in full to anyone who is dissatisfied. Get a three weeks' treatment today; it costs only $1.50—50c a week—and note how quickly you begin to feel better, how much better you sleep, how your appetite improves, and, best of all, the gradual return of the strength, endurance, energy and joy of living you used to feel twenty or thirty years ago.—Advertisement.

What's Happening in the Motor World

by Jim Houlihan

Begins to look as though The TRIBUNE's annual tour, with Feather River Inn as this year's destination, will be the yearly occasion for the "Old Timers" Club to meet and paw-wow over the days when motor cars were scarce and gasoline was cheap.

The morning mail brings an entry from Herbie Hadenfeldt, of the Butler Veitch sales organization. Herman, a veteran, expressed a legitimate peeve that his name was omitted from the Sunday role, adding that though he had forgotten to include him, he was going to pocket his pride and make entry in regular manner because he had so much fun on the 1920 run he didn't intend to miss the caravan to the Feather River Inn next June.

J. L. Brambila notified the tour committee yesterday that Lou H. Rose company would have a Challenger in the lineup. The driver will be named at a later date.

Byron Gray, manager of David Aronson's Scripps Booth and H. C. S. agency, will send a car on the tour. Whether a Scripps Booth or an H. C. S. will go, Gray hadn't decided.

Camille Orta of Weaver Wells company, doesn't intend to let his bosses—Chester N. Weaver or Ed Wells—have the fun out of this trip for the Studebaker tour organization by being the only participants in the run and his statement commitment to look after the restoration of missions and landmarks, which began discussion this morning and resolutions facilitating San Francisco on its recovery from the disaster of fifteen years ago.

The San Francisco resolution came immediately after calling of the Grand Parlor to order by Grand President James F. Hoey, and was adopted by a standing ovation. It was presented by Edwin A. Messer and seconded by Henry G. Bodkin, both of Los Angeles.

Harry L. Mulverly, representing Olympia Parlor, No. 188, is father of the movement for the restoration of the old missions; his resolution calling for the creation of a "California missions restoration committee" of five members. It is proposed to invite other organizations to participate in the restoration of any one mission in the particular section of the state in which they are located. An appropriation to cover preliminary expenses is asked for. The resolution was referred to the landmarks committee for report today.

JAPANESE QUESTION UP
Various resolutions are said to be in the hands of various delegations with reference to the Japanese question, and for some definite action to be taken.

Passage of the anti-alien law was only a step in the campaign to preserve the state for the use and the enjoyment of the white resident. State Controller John S. Chambers told the grand parlor.

"If Japan were a weak nation the issue would be simple. Not being a weak nation, the issue is tremendously important," he said.

Nominations for officers is set for 2 o'clock this afternoon and a lively fight is in view for the position of grand secretary, vacant since last August by the death of Fred H. Jung. Among the prominent candidates mentioned are: State Senator John T. Ragan, South San Francisco Parlor; Stanley Scovern, Stanford Parlor; San Francisco, Henry L. Gunzberger, Bay City Parlor; San Francisco, and John J. Dignan, Alameda.

San Joaquin county delegates are making a strong fight for the election of William E. Welch of Lodi as grand trustee.

CHILDREN'S HOME DISCUSSED
Among matters under consideration is revision of the work of the Native Sons in behalf of homeless children, and purchase of twenty acres of land on the shores of Donner lake and contiguous to the Donner monument, the same to be developed as a park.

The afternoon session was devoted to an exemplification of the resolutions of the ritual, prepared by a committee a year ago.

Last night was given over to a formal reception in the Auditorium by Stockton Parlor to the 453 delegates and grand officers at which hundreds of Stockton Natives and visitors were present. Mayor D. F. Ricks welcomed the Native Sons to the city. Other speeches were made by prominent members of the organization.

Japanese Now Bring Wives With Them

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—The "gentleman's agreement" which put an end to the picture bride custom does not include any clauses to restrict a Japanese from returning to his home land, there to claim a bride. On the Siberia, Mariu and other steamships from Japan passengers of late have marveled at the number of honeymoon couples among the Japanese. In federal circles it is pointed out that the emigration rates have been offered to the Japanese men in this country and that hundreds of them are taking advantage of the opportunity to cross the Pacific after wives who are being taken to the agricultural districts of California.

BELGIANS COME TO U. S. TO STUDY

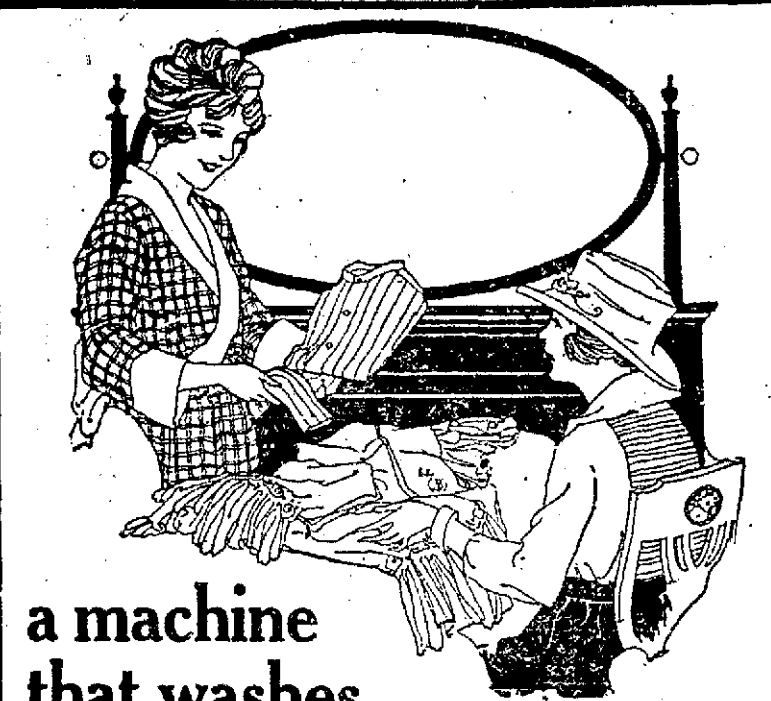

NEW YORK, April 18.—Twenty new "fellows" have been appointed by four Belgian universities to come to America for graduate study for the school year of 1921-1922.

The nominating universities are Ghent, Liege, Brussels and Louvain. The School of Mines at Mons and the Colonial School at Antwerp; while the thirteen American colleges and universities asked to nominate candidates for study in Belgium for the 1921-1922 academic year are Harvard, Yale, Columbia, Cornell, California, Pennsylvania, Chicago, Stanford, Princeton, Vassar, Smith, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Johns Hopkins. The American candidates will be chosen by May 1. Four fellowships in each country are renewed.

The origin of the C. R. R. Educational Foundation dates from the armistice, the fund representing residue from the sales of foodstuffs both outside and inside Belgium, largely accrued during the armistice under the commission for relief in Belgium, which continued in service until April, 1919, and of the Comité National, which was the associate organization of the American commission and was made up of a large number of Belgians under the direction of distinguished Belgian business men.

Y. OF A CAPTAIN SHOT

SACRAMENTO, April 18.—Captain N. Matthews of the Volunteers of America was shot in the right leg here last night by a man who gave his name as John Hallman. Hallman, according to the police, fired four shots at a crowd that had gathered on a street corner to hear Matthews. The man is believed by the police to be insane.

MISS RAMBEAU SCORES HIT IN "SIGN ON DOOR"

Talented Actress Is Given
Good Support At Mac-Arthur Theater.

Marjorie Rambeau has excellent opportunity for the display of her superb emotional talents in Channing Pollock's new play, "The Sign on the Door," which opened at the Mac-Arthur theater last night. Not only is such a star seen in such a play with so strong a cast on the Pacific Coast, Miss Rambeau was accorded an enthusiastic welcome by those who greeted her return to Oakland, even though in numbers she deserved a better compliment. Probably she will set the numbers before the week is out, for those who saw the opening last night will do much by word of mouth toward spreading the good news that there is a dramatic treat in town of a high order.

When one has seen the beautiful Marjorie Rambeau in grief he is not likely soon to forget it. Her poignant distraction and pathos, are what took her from Alhambra, Cal., to Broadway and fame. In this respect she has always been a true artist, from her earliest Morosco stock days, and it was patent then that only the opportunity waited to bring her recognition in the metropolis. If we remember rightly, Morosco made several bad guesses in the vehicles in which he sent her to the big town, among them "Sadie Love." But despite these Miss Rambeau was of the type that grows greater than her plays. Then came worthwhile media, of which "The Sign on the Door" is one. There is excellent reason why she has maintained her hold on Broadway audiences for so many seasons.

WORK WELL BALANCED
Her work in this piece is well balanced—as convincing in the light garish touches in the prologue as in the serious business of the play. Never has she seemed prettier. And she brings from Broadway an added grace and mellowness that did not escape those who have seen her before.

"The Sign on the Door," while based on a familiar complication, is nevertheless a novel treatment. There is the wife haunted by memories, the implacable, virtue-worshipping husband, the ghost of a compromising situation in the past, the daughter about to be sacrificed to the role who holds the key to the woman's happiness. The prologue, so-called, might frankly be called the first act. There are a number of situations that can truthfully be described as "gripping." There is a murder and a mystery about it.

ONE BIG MOMENT
Of course, there is the big moment of a woman's supreme sacrifice of everything to save the daughter, the hideous exposure of her whole compromised present and past. It is doubtful if Miss Rambeau could be surpassed in this scene. Then there is the delicious denouement, with a snap and punch to it that are accentuated by the complete surprise. Without having had a tip about it, there was no way for the most ingenious guessers to solve an inexplicable, gloomy situation as it appeared at the eleventh hour. It must be seen to be appreciated.

Miss Rambeau's support was of a high order. Lee Baker, in the role of "Late" Regan, the husband, did such a finished bit of work that it was difficult to study him, so wrapped in the realism of his portrayal did one become. Harry Minturn as Frank Devereaux displayed fine restraint and power. Ferguson, the valet, might have been a trifle over-acted by Robert Vivian, but the audience liked it. Beatrice Allen as Helen Regan and the others of the cast were more than satisfactory.

A. H. Woods has brought to Oakland a choice dramatic offering in Miss Rambeau in this play.—W. B. H.

PIMPY? WELL, DON'T BE People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights. Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face. Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.—Advertisement.

CATARHAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are even just a little hard of hearing or have head noises go to your drugist and get 1 ounce of Eumark (double strength) and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should be opened, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to use. Anyone losing hearing or who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

NO CORSETS! SHORT SOCKS! HEY, OFFICER

SANTA ROSA, April 19.—The question of whether or not a girl who dispenses with corsets while attending a dance or who wears "half socks" may be arrested has been asked by Chief of Police George W. Matthews with the result that he declares they cannot be arrested.

The matter came to the attention of the police chief through the activities of Policewoman M. H. Reeves who recently sent 16 girls from dances until they would wear longer stockings and wear corsets.

S. F. Plans Zones For Residences, Business

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Restricted residential and business zones will be established throughout the city if a recommendation by the city planning commission and submitted to the board of supervisors for consideration, and later to the street committee, the committee on commercial development and the committee on public welfare, is carried out. The proposed ordinance by the city planning commission was submitted yesterday, and was accompanied by a series of zone maps outlining the essentials of the plan. The ordinance which designates the district in which certain classes of structures may be erected, created the following five zones.

The one-family dwelling district, the group dwelling district, the commercial district, the light industrial district and the heavy industrial district.

In addition there is a district in which there are no restrictions save

Imprisoned Husband Balks Amazon Award

With the receipt of a letter by San Francisco attorneys from Hugh Newell, or Douglass, divorced husband of Mrs. Ella Mair Bennett-Douglass, who was awarded a tract of 2,400,000 acres of land in Brazil by Superior Judge A. F. St. Sure, from a New York prison, asking that his interests be protected, Mrs. Douglass may lose her kingdom on the banks of the "River of Doubt," and the case be re-opened. The letter was received by Judge F. T. Shortall of San Francisco and turned over to Judge St. Sure.

Re-opening of the case may follow which would postpone Mrs. Douglass' possession of the empire until final court action was over. Because he was in prison at the time and unable to put in a case against his wife, Newell claims he was unable to protect his interests.

HICKORY WAIST AND GARTERS FOR GIRLS AND BOYS

"Hickory Waists benefit the kiddies and save me time, worry and money"

"After I buy Hickory Waists I can forget them," said a mother recently. "They stand almost endless tubbing and endure the hardest wear my youngsters can give them. Hickory require little of my attention—they are certainly work and worry savers. For secure support, comfort and aid in natural development, they are just what every girl and boy needs."

The body of the Hickory Waist is made of durable, high grade materials—wears well and washes wonderfully. Tailored in the faultless full body model as well as in the popular style illustrated. For all ages 2 to 14. Each garment fits perfectly. All buttons are genuine unbreakable bone; the pin tube attachment prevents the garter pin from bending or breaking. Guaranteed to give you absolute satisfaction.

ALL GOVERNORS ARE ASKED TO BACK EXCLUSION

Stephens Urges Support in California's Move To Ban Aliens.

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—Appeal was made yesterday by Governor William D. Stephens to every governor in the United States to unite with California in a national effort for the absolute exclusion from the country of Japanese immigrants. The letter follows:

"The California legislature on April 13 passed unanimously joint resolution No. 25 embodying a declaration of California's principles in the matter of Japanese immigration and urging upon the President, the State department and Congress the indorsement and adoption thereof.

"As a frontier state, California is making the fight of the nation against the incoming rush of an alien, unassimilable race, which would engulf our civilization, our traditions and our ideals.

"Without the cooperation of the other states, California cannot hope to secure action on this matter. It is a step to the future development in this county of an alien, unassimilable community, which must in time engender racial conflict and international misunderstandings.

"The way to preserve peace with Japan is to act in this matter with justice and decision and to place about our American citizenship and economic interests such protection as Japan properly places about her own.

"In view of these facts I am taking the liberty of asking your assistance in upholding California's stand in this matter. You can aid in this fight for the preservation of the nation's interests by representations to your state delegation at Washington, urging or recommending they cooperate with the California delegation in an effort to secure absolute exclusion of Japanese immigration, under conditions which will save any real humiliation to Japan and will make for peace now and permanent friendship hereafter between this country and Japan.

"Yours very truly,
"W. M. D. STEPHENS,
"Governor of California."

All Road Bills Are Favorably Reported

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—The assembly committee on ways and means at a session lasting into the morning hours today reported out with recommendations for passage of all the road bills that had been introduced during the session.

It also reported out favorably bills from San Francisco, Los Angeles, Fresno, Stanislaus, Alameda, and Tulare counties, providing a $1000 salary increase for each of the Superior court judges of those counties, about fifty in all.

The road bills reported out included: Trinity, Tehama and Shasta highway (introduced by Bernard) $3,000; Auburn, Placer, So. Yuba, Tuolumne highway survey (Parker), $50,000; Vacaville, Winters highway (McPherson), sum unspecified; Butte-Willows highway (Hughes), sum unspecified; Alturas-New Pine highway (Powell), $30,000; Madera-Roseville highway (Windrem), $50,000; Lassen county highway (Kline), amount unspecified; Colusa-McClellan highway (Kline), amount unspecified; Colusa-Colima highway (McGee), $100,000; Kings River Canyon highway (Hosinger), $250,000.

Fishing Bill Now Dead For Session

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—The assembly today refused to bring Senator J. M. Inman's anti-Japanese fishing bill out of committee by resolution. The bill had been tabled by the assembly in the morning session following its passage by the senate. The motion to force the bill out of committee was made by Assemblyman Parker of Auburn. The assembly vote was 12 yeas to 40 noes.

Passage of the bill would have prohibited deep water fishing by all aliens ineligible to citizenship. The action of the assembly finally disposed of the bill for this session.

CONSOLIDATED TWINS

Found Alive in the Wild Australian Bush Six Days Old

Seventeen miles from any house, near the bank of the Harris river, West Australia. This is just over three years six months ago. It was then six days old. Now that it has grown up, has proved to be the most wonderful biological curiosity in the world. Over 20,000 people have seen this remarkable creature in Australia, Tasmania and New Zealand. It has traveled 27,000 miles over land and sea. This wonderful curiosity was reared by Mrs. Gunning Davis, a lady of West Australia, who brought it to her home for 12 months. It is a handsome white Leghorn chicken, having two bodies with one frame. It grows like a rooster and cackles like a hen. The most notable feature is its four different legs, combs, wattles, tails, two bodies (in one frame). It is a pheasant, makes its own nest, is a fertile father of many chickens (one chick travels with it, 12 months old). The hen lays eggs which are not fertile, never before has anyone had the opportunity of seeing such a remarkable scientific wonder. It is the only one ever known in the world, and is valued at $10,000. Mrs. Gunning Davis took this chicken to Yreka, Calif., about a week ago for scientific research. She is now quite satisfied that she has reared the greatest living wonder the world has ever known. This chicken is physically healthy and absolutely genuine.

Don't miss seeing this wonderful bird, which will be exhibited for a few days only at 124 Broadway, Oakland, Calif. Just past the General Postoffice. Advertisement.

Sub-Debutantes To Enjoy Dance As School Closes

Half a hundred invitations were received this week for a dancing party which Miss Dorothy Dunn will give at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn, on Central avenue, Alameda, the evening of April 30. Miss Dunn is a student of Miss Head's school and a number of her classmates will be guests. It is one of several dancing parties in which the sub-debutantes set will participate before vacation time.

Mrs. Dunn will entertain informally tomorrow afternoon at bridge for a number of guests from the Encinal City.

The bridge which Mrs. G. D. Kierulff was to have given this afternoon at her home in Avalon road has been postponed until May 5.

Mrs. Gardner Perry Pond and her sister, Miss Aida Baxter, were hostesses this afternoon at tea at the home of Mrs. A. A. Baxter for half a hundred of the maids and matrons east of the bay. Their honor guests upon this occasion were Miss Marion Anderson, betrothed of Frederick Lawson Adams of Sacramento and Miss Helen Rogers, whose engagement to James Owsley was announced a few days ago. A profusion of red tulips was used in the appointments of the home and assisting the hostesses were the Misses Helen Conroy, Sarah Parker and Eleanor Campbell.

ENTERTAINS GUESTS
AT AFTERNOON.
 Miss Kitty Bell Long entertained Saturday afternoon at tea for one hundred and fifty guests at her home in Linda Vista. Assisting the hostess were the Misses Elizabeth Howard, Barbara Brady, Lora Pratt, Anita Chadbourne, Frances Parkinson, Margaret Cox and Adelaide Griffith. Mrs. A. A. Long, mother of the hostess presided at the tea table.

Among those who crossed the bay yesterday to hear Miss Garden and other artists at the St. Francis under the auspices of the Fine Arts Society were Mrs. Louise Allender and Mrs. Charles Butters, Mrs. Gardner Pond and Miss Aida Baxter. There were many informal tea parties following the talk by the director general of the Chicago Opera Association.

WEDDINGS OF THE WEEK.
 Miss Dorothy Taylor and Murray Orrick are to be married tomorrow at St. Paul's Episcopal church with only members of the immediate family and very intimate friends as witnesses to the ceremony. Rev. Alexander Allen, rector of that church, will officiate.

On Thursday Miss Josephine Adams will become the bride of Dr. William Henry Sargent, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Adams in Vernon Heights.

Mrs. C. D. Bibbins left yesterday for an extended trip through Ireland, England, France and Switzerland. She will be away for several months.

The board of managers of the West Oakland Home has arranged to give a dance at the Arcadia Friday evening. The object of this party being to pay for machinery which has just been installed in the laundry and other necessities. Tickets

LUNCHEON FOR VISITOR SOUTH.

Mrs. Robert Wayne of Piedmont, who has been visiting in Los Angeles as the house guest of Miss Bernice Carr, was the motif for a luncheon a few days ago at the California club in the south, places being laid for twenty-five guests.

Mrs. Lloyd Larson and Miss Edie Hatcher entertained Saturday afternoon at a shower for Miss Jeannette Fulcher, who recently announced her engagement to Raymond Hanne Sheshan. The appointments were in pink and white sweet peas and roses and many beautiful gifts were received by the honoree.

The guests were Mrs. J. T. Folsom, Mrs. Ernest Hagedorn, Miss Jeannette and Miss Margaret Fulcher.

Writers' Club Will Honor Publisher

By EDNA B. KINARD

W. W. Ellsworth, former president of the Century Publishing Company, who is spending the season in the bay cities, will be complimented by the California Writers' Club next week at a "Century Magazine Dinner." The Monday calendar has a place reserved for the informal function which will have the Oakland Young Women's Christian Association auditorium as its setting. "The Writing Game" will be reviewed by the widely known eastern magazine authority whose experiences have covered more than a quarter of a century. Mrs. Mabel Gray Potter will have a place on the program with the principal guest of the evening.

The club in whose membership are included many writers of local reputation is taking keen interest in the annual convention of the California Association of Authors, which is being held at the Hotel Fairmont in San Francisco, the all-day program to be interrupted at noon by the annual luncheon. Mrs. Josephine Swan White of Oakland is president of this important society whose purpose is to preserve purity in speech and the extension of literature. She will preside throughout the sessions.

"Problems" will be considered in a round table announced for 10.30 a. m. following the business meeting and presentation of annual reports. Mrs. Oscar M. Bennett will lead the discussion in which Mrs. Fannie Ward Miller, Mrs. Mabel Gifford, Mrs. Butterfield and Mabelle Carlson will participate.

"The Art of Oral Expression" will be reviewed in its several values at the conclusion of the morning session as follows: The Business Woman, "The School Teacher," Anna Hagarty, "To the Clergyman," Mrs. Basha England Thompson, "The Housewife," Miss Ethel Cotton.

Fred Emerson Brooks and Ethel Noyes Pratt will offer readings, and Mrs. Edward R. Place will give a group of songs on the opening program. Dr. Alice Luce of Mills College will be the principal speaker of the afternoon. Mrs. White will present the president's annual address.

A scene from "Herod" (Stephen Phillips) will be read by Professor Lee Emerson Bassett of Stanford University, and "Armstrong" (George Eliot) will be given by Miss Edith Reid, principal of Highland School. The Berkeley Trio will offer the music during the luncheon hour.

The birthday luncheon of the Home Club will be celebrated on Thursday, with presidents of several of the eastbay clubs sharing the complimentary duty. Mrs. Josephine Swan White will offer a group of cantillations during the later hour. Musical numbers will be contributed by Miss Rosalie Harrison, contralto; and Miss Ruth Gray, soprano. Mrs. George Rothenger as hostess will be assisted in receiving by Mrs. G. B. Waddell, Mrs. F. C. Wells, Mrs. Henry Vetterbee, Mrs. C. J. Woodbury, Mrs. M. Armstrong, Mrs. A. Ashmead, Dr. Cora Aldrich, Mrs. F. F. Barbour, Mrs. William Barnard, Mrs. Harmon Bell, Miss Grace Barnard, Mrs. Arthur Reed, Mrs. G. B. Brinkerhoff, Mrs. Everett Brown, Mrs. S. V. Armstrong.

Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs held its annual meeting and election of officers today in the Y. W. C. A. auditorium.

The Domestic Science classes and dramatic club in Highland High School are complimenting the Pa-

cent-Teacher Association today by offering a luncheon to the retiring and incoming boards of directors and presenting the later program. "The Teacher's Work Shop," a one-act skit, will be put on by the dramatic class. Mrs. F. V. Vollmer, first vice-president of Oakland Federation, will preside at the formal installation ceremony. Mrs. A. E. Thurston succeeds herself as president.

A dinner is summoning members of the Business and Professional Women's club to the Y. W. C. A. tonight, the function celebrating the conclusion of a membership drive which has placed the roll well beyond the 125 mark.

Governor's Officers Blamed For Sinking
 SEATTLE, April 19.—Blame for the wreck of the steamship Governor, rammed and sunk by the freighter West Hartland off Port Townsend, Wash., April 1, with the loss of five lives, was officially placed on the pilot of the Governor, Captain Henry H. Marden, and Ernest Kellenberger, second mate, and Arne Hage, third mate, of the Governor, in the report of the United States steamboat inspectors. The three officers are specifically charged with "inattention to the duties of their station."

Captain Edward P. Bartlett, master of the Governor, was absolved of blame and given praise for his "intelligent supervision of the debarcation of survivors," in the report.

Campaign Started to Rename South Dakota
SIOUX FALLS, S. D., April 19.—A campaign recently has been inaugurated by the Chamber of Commerce of Mitchell, S. D., to have the name of South Dakota changed to Roosevelt. A similar movement started several years ago, received only little public support and consequently was dropped.

"By all means, the name should be changed to that of Roosevelt. The one great reason why we should get a new name for our state, is that, because of circumstances for which neither state is responsible, South Dakota must, so long as no named, be regarded as a sort of extension of North Dakota."

U. S. LIKENED TO HUSBAND TO LATIN-AMERICA

Mexican Speaker Says Latins Cannot Hope To Compete Commercially.

Closing his address with reference to one of the most beautiful bits of Latin-American poetry, in which the mating of the Adam of the North, or Anglo-Saxon American, with the Eve of the South, or Latin-American, is pictured, H. M. Sein yesterday declared before members of the Oakland Kiwanis Club that Mexico today faces a new era of peace and progress.

The occasion was the weekly luncheon of that club held in the Hotel Oakland. Sein is a Mexican and a student of the University of California.

This famous bit of Spanish verse, though little known in English, I believe, expresses better the situation in the Americas than anything ever written," Sein declared. "The Anglo-Saxon American is the masculine race. He is energetic, full of vim, vigor and vitality, progressive, and a fighter.

The Latin, on the other hand, is the feminine type. He loves art and culture and romance. He shrinks from the problems of commercial aggressiveness and turns instead to his moonlight and his guitar."

The speaker continued the simile to the conclusion that it is unwise for the United States to compete with the Latin-American countries commercially as is done with other countries, but, on the other hand, that the nations of America should develop a community of interest that is theirs.

There should be harmonious and intimate relations between the two races that inhabit the Americas, not on a man-to-man basis of business competition, but on a man-and-wife basis of mutual understanding and cooperation for the welfare of both," Sein declared.

Sein declared that Mexicans know much more of the United States than the United States knows of Mexico. He said that every little Mexican child knows the great names of United States history—George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, and the rest—but few American business men know the names of the men who fought for and founded the Mexican republic.

Red Cross Tells of Its Work for Sick Soldiers

How the Red Cross operates in the field presented by the ever-expanding problem of the care of the veterans of the world war is indicated by the work done in the Pacific Division. According to a statement given out at division headquarters yesterday, 150 chapters in California, Nevada and Arizona, reporting on this service, handled 63,733 cases in the last 12 months. During that period $41,016.48 was expended for relief work for the men and their families. The work is handled by Home Service committees in chapters, as it has been done since the early days of the war. It has been continued since the signing of the armistice as the chapter share in discharging the war work of the American Red Cross.

In addition to the work conducted by chapters, the Pacific Division has the highest hospitalization task of any of the Red Cross divisions, with six United States Public Health Service hospitals in its jurisdiction. Records in an average month show that more than 2000 patients were treated in the six hospitals—Arrowhead, Arrowhead Springs, Marine, San Francisco; Kearney, San Diego; Palo Alto, Palo Alto, Tucson, Tucson, Ariz., and Venable Barracks, Prescott, Ariz., and 867 patients were treated in contract hospitals in the division territory.

SOLDIERS CARED FOR
Hundreds of soldier cases are brought to the attention of the Red Cross chapters daily. In 1920, chapters, dealing directly with the various government departments or indirectly through National Red Cross headquarters in Washington, handled more than 200,000 service claims.

and while compensation cases form a large part of this work of the Red Cross for the former service men, they are by no means the only cases handled.

Because of the size of the soldier problems and the increasing number of cases entitled to government assistance, 2514 chapters of the Red Cross out of 3640 scattered throughout the country are still maintaining service to the disabled ex-service men as a major activity in their peace program.

MONEY ADVANCED
While the man waits for his government claims to be paid, if he needs financial aid the Red Cross lends him money. During 1920 chapters expended $3,166,000 for the relief of these men and their families.

Virtually every man who is given medical treatment or vocational training by the government comes into direct contact with the Red Cross. In the 28 district offices maintained by the Public Health Service and Federal Board for Vocational Training for the examination of all men applying for treatment or training, the Red Cross maintains one or more workers to see that the man's personal problems outside the purview of the government are solved. Financial aid until compensation begins, care for his family, clothing and countless other needs are provided by the Red Cross through its Home Service sections.

Alameda County Bee Keepers Meet May 6

In the April issue of "Bees and Honey," official publication of the Alameda County Beekeepers' Association, it is announced that the next regular monthly meeting of the association will be held in the Hotel Oakland on May 6, at 8 p. m.

An account of the thirty-second annual meeting of the California State Beekeepers' Association in Oakland on March 2 is one of the features of this issue. The visit at the University of California, election of officers and the various program, one of which included the rendition by Fred Emerson Brooks of many of his original poems, were among the highlights of the gathering.

General news of interest to beekeepers, and a special article on "The Future of Beekeeping" are among the other features of the publication.

A GENUINE CLOSING OUT SALE

Not a sale to CREATE business, but a sale to QUIT business in a high-priced location, where instead of showing a profit, the store has been operated at a ruinous loss. The owners can't stand it; nobody could stand it. Better far to take the loss in the shortest time possible and get out with what's left. That's the true story and it's all there is to tell, EXCEPT that—

San Francisco News

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Upward of a dozen men, said to be wealthy and prominent, were found sitting about a mahogany table by Police Captain Arthur Layne when he raided the back room at the Standard Commercial Company's offices, 136 Leidersdorff street yesterday. Two dozen bottles of whisky were found in the place. Captain Layne was accompanied by Detectives Groat and Murray. A man named J. B. Ruscani admitted that he was proprietor of the establishment.

"The Chinese World," a local paper printed in China, has received word by cable that Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who was recently elected president of the Chinese republic, may not accept the office. One cablegram stated that Dr. Sun Yat Sen believed the majority of the Chinese people were not in favor of him as president and that it was merely one faction that had placed him in office.

Mrs. Ann O'Reilly, 24½ Ford street, was yesterday granted an uncontested decree of divorce from Christopher O'Reilly, who disappeared eight years ago. Mrs. O'Reilly said she had met some one whom she wished to marry as soon as she was free. Judge Graham told her it would not be necessary to wait a year. He told her she could swear to an affidavit stating that she believes O'Reilly to be dead and that the county clerk would give her a marriage license which would allow her to marry at once. She gave the court to understand that she would consider the proposition.

As an outcome of charges filed against him one week ago, Thomas P. Saunders was yesterday dismissed as an inspector of buildings in the board of public works. The charges stated that Saunders had asked for and received $120 from a contractor named B. S. Berry.

Although admitting that he had been forced to make love to women to get money to live on because he was too sick to work, L. D. Nicewander, who formerly stayed at the Manx hotel, yesterday pleaded not guilty to a charge of fraudulent use of the mails in furthering an alleged matrimonial swindle. The case was up before Federal Judge Jeremiah Nether. In a secret indictment it was stated that Nicewander made ardent love to Mrs. Doris Wilrick of Los Angeles, an action which netted him about $300. It is said that he has received considerable sums from various other women on promises to marry them. His case comes up again Saturday.

Following Thomas Flaherty's decision to accept the appointment of sealer of weights and measures on April 20, F. M. La Rue was yesterday named as acting chief wharfinger of San Francisco. President John H. McCallum of the board of harbor commissioners said yesterday that the appointment is a temporary one.

During the last few days Internal Revenue Collector John L. Flynn has received hundreds of letters from high school students asking for information concerning luxury taxes, which they are studying at the present time. The luxury tax payments were segregated from the others yesterday in conformity with these requests. It was found that $14,411.91 was spent in California on taxes on tickets to theaters and other places of amusement during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919. Bowling alley, billiard and pool luxury taxes aggregated $44,605.04. Among the many other luxury tax items was $508,144 for chewing gum.

By a lack of one vote the garbage ordinance failed of passage by the board of supervisors here yesterday. It is to be brought up for a further vote on Monday. A maximum rate for the collection of garbage is one of the provisions of the proposed ordinance. The mayor plan of the city planning commission, the proposed apportionment of the United Railroads properties and discussion of an appropriation for the erection of a building here for a stock show were among the other projects brought before the board.

Dr. B. M. Rastall, industrial engineer employed by the Chamber of Commerce, has written a series of articles showing the various handicaps to progress in San Francisco and suggesting methods of overcoming the obstacles standing in the way of the city's development. The articles were written for publication in the newspapers of San Francisco.

Girl Charged With Taking Diamond Ring

LOS ANGELES, April 19.—Miss Gladys Dewey was at liberty on her own recognizance today awaiting hearing on April 28 on charges of embezzlement brought by Claude Alexandre of the Hotel de Luxe, San Francisco. The young woman is accused of having defrauded Alexandre of a $250 diamond ring and $50. He said he entrusted the ring and money to her care.

Miss Dewey is not a bit perturbed, she said. "There is still another side to the case," she asserted, smiling. "You'd be surprised."

WOOD MADE PENN. HEAD.

PHILADELPHIA, April 19.—Major-General Leonard Wood yesterday was elected head of the University of Pennsylvania board of trustees. He was nominated by the board last month.

WIVES URGED BY MARY GARDEN TO STUDY MARRIAGE

"Wives, lavish as much patience in making your marriage a success as you would your art," such was the advice of Mary Garden, grand opera star, speaking before the University Fine Arts Society yesterday at the St. Francis Hotel.

"Men, I sympathize with you, when, tired and weary, your wives drag you to the opera," she offered the husbands. "The persistence of the women, however, will make the day cities one of the great musical centers of the world and give to California its splendid opera house," Miss Garden prophesied.

The renowned singer urged wives to aim for success in life,

since they have chosen marriage rather than the arts.

"All the devotion, study and finesse should be lavished upon it that otherwise would be given to the development of a great artist," she told them.

Sharing honors with Miss Garden yesterday were M. and Mme. Lucian Muratore. The grand opera stars were introduced by Joseph Redding. Mrs. Stella Jellicoe, Oakland woman, and Fred Emerson Brooks, California poet, were among those who contributed to the program of the reception. Several hundred guests were included in the invitations of the University of Fine Arts Society.

LIBRARIANS OF
BAY DISTRICT TO MEET SATURDAYAll Phases of Work Will Be Touched On By Prominent Speakers.

One hundred librarians of the bay county district representing both public and large private libraries, will meet in quarterly convention in Oakland on Saturday, according to announcement today of Miss Mabel W. Thomas, associate librarian of the Oakland Free Library, who is president of the first district of the California Library Association.

The morning session will be devoted to group meetings on special problems of library management and the afternoon session, to be held in the lecture room of the Oakland Public Museum, will be devoted to a general meeting of the librarians. One of the principal addresses of the afternoon meeting will be that of George T. Clark, a prominent librarian recently returned from a trip to Europe. He will discuss the work and problems of the large European libraries.

The complete program for the librarians' meeting is as follows:

10:30 A. M. GROUPS.
Branch Librarians—Chairman, Miss Lucie C. Nye, at branch department, Oakland Free Library.
Cataloguers—Miss E. A. Hedrick, chairman, at Y. W. C. A., 1515 Webster street.

Children's Librarians—Miss Helen H. Jackson, chairman, at children's room, Oakland Free Library.

School Librarians—Mrs. Elizabeth S. Madison, chairman, at library, Oakland High School.

Special Librarians—Miss Lillian McKinnon, chairman, at Y. W. C. A., 1515 Webster street.

At noon the librarians will have an informal luncheon at the Y. W. C. A. and at 1:30 the general session will start at the Oakland Public Museum.

The speakers at the afternoon session will be:

C. E. Joeckel and Miss Stella Librarian, will be in attendance at Huntington on "The Salary Cam-

Jail Mates Are Quite Human Is Bebe's View

By BEBE DANIELS

(First of a series of exclusive signed stories written for The TRIBUNE by Bebe Daniels, telling of her impressions and experiences in the Santa Ana jail, to which she was sentenced for speeding.)

In my career as a player of cards I have been associated with many different sorts and varieties of people ranging from Hindus to Laplanders and from ditch diggers to millionaires, but never have I been in such remarkable company as that surrounding me here in the jail at Santa Ana. Right next door is a lady alleged to have sold drinks illegally and around the corner is a dope peddler whose customers considerably outnumber the humdrum of jail life. And in the tanks below there are bigamists, forgers, thieves of all sorts and a great many men who have experimented with home distilled whiskey. All of these people are most intensely human and very interesting.

Like me, they made a mistake and are paying for it and I am trying to follow their attitude of cheerful acceptance. Quite the nicest thing in my first day was the visit of Justice Cox with a beautiful bouquet of American Beauty roses. I have the utmost admiration for the legal ability of Mr. Cox and have only the most cordial feelings toward him. He did his duty as the law requires and I wouldn't have thought much of him if he hadn't.

The people of Santa Ana have been perfectly lovely. It is to their kindness I am indebted for the pretty furniture with which they have decked my cell, boxes of pain in the First and Second Districts.

George T. Clark, "A Librarian at Large."

Miss Nella J. Martin, "The Training for Librarianship, at the University of California."

Milton J. Ferguson, "The Report of the Special Legislative Committee on Education as it Affects the Libraries of California."

Cornelia D. Provines, state president of the California Library Association and Sacramento county librarian, will be in attendance at the convention.

candy, flowers and other much appreciated gifts of good cheer. All of my life here is not to be just sitting around, however, as this morning I started in to help Mrs. Theodore Lacy Jr., the jail matron, to clean out some of the other cells and polish up the corridors, and will aid in the various other jail duties for the remainder of the term. My feminine friends will appreciate it when I state my deep relief on finding this a rattlesnail jail. I think I feared rats and cooties more than any other single thing and what did I find but a place more spotless than a hotel and twice as fireproof as most.

Child Stealing Is Charged To Woman

GRASS VALLEY, April 19.—Child stealing in Indiana was charged by Albert E. Griffiths, policeman of Hammond, Ind., when he sought a warrant yesterday for the arrest of Mrs. Charles Curry of this city, accusing her of being a fugitive from justice. Griffiths said he expected to arrest the woman today.

The officer said Mrs. Curry was charged with having abducted Rosa Klempfleuer, a 14-year-old girl, from her home in Hammond and having brought the girl to California last year. Mrs. Curry formerly was housekeeper for the girl's father and is said to have formed an attachment for the girl.

Mrs. Curry came to Colfax last year in answer to an advertisement by Curry for a wife. They were married soon after her arrival and now live at a sawmill about nine miles from Grass Valley, where he is employed.

VIVIANI ASKS FOR
U. S. CO-OPERATION

NEW YORK, April 19.—Business and commercial co-operation between France and the United States was urged last night by René Viviani, special French envoy, in an address before New York bankers and businessmen.

Among those present were J. Pierpont Morgan, Charles M. Schwab, General Coleman du Pont, Otto H. Kahn and Charles H. Sabin.

The French guest said he was not pleading for help from America "as a matter of charity."

As proof that France was able to do her part in reconstruction, he cited a report he had just received from Paris that last January, for the first time since the war, his country's exports exceeded her imports.

France's economic efficiency,

he said, has revived 72 per cent of the pre-war condition.

"Out of every twenty factories destroyed," he said, "we have rebuilt six. Out of 4,700,000 people driven from the devastated regions 420,000 have returned and are producing."

Later Viviani called at the city hall and presented to the city a large vase "in testimony of the deep sympathy between the republic of France and your noble municipality."

Mayor Hylan, in response, presented to the visitor the official scroll of the freedom of the city.

U. S. Advances Italy
16 Million Dollars

WASHINGTON, April 19.—An advance of $16,000,000 was made to Italy during March, under loan commitments previously authorized, Secretary Mellon announced today. While this was the first foreign loan transaction since last September, there was no actual cash transfer, Mellon explained.

GETS THE DIRT—NOT THE CARPET

Breuner's makes this liberal special offer to demonstrate the Eureka to our customers—but only a limited number can be loaned. So do not delay, or you may be disappointed! We believe a trial will convince you that the Eureka is a superior vacuum cleaner. And we urge you to see for yourself. You be the judge—try it on your carpets, rugs, curtains, wherever dust can collect. Note its free action, its easy operation, its lightness; and see how deeply and thoroughly it cleans, picking up all threads, lint, ravelings, etc.

The Eureka is Winner of Every Competition!

The Eureka won the Grand Prize at the P. P. I. E., San Francisco; the King Albert Medal; the Gold Medal at Milan, Italy; Gold Medal in England, over all other competing cleaners! This obvious superiority makes the Eureka used by most firms that rent out cleaners and by those doing cleaning by the day! The Eureka not only does unusually good work, but stands up under hard use!

Here are some outstanding points of Eureka supremacy:
—It has an unusually fine motor!
—It has self-aligning bearings!

—Its broom action detachable brush never clogs with hair, thread, etc.
—It has no rubber belts to stretch or break!
—Its narrow opening in nozzle moves more air at a greater velocity than practically any other portable cleaner made!
—It has an unusually high vacuum!
—Its oiling system is just like you see in fans and all high speed motors!
—Its automatic and positive oiling is the most costly to be found in any cleaner!
—Its attachments are easy to use and attach!

JAPAN IN A MENACING STAND.

Upon Japan's motion the correspondence exchanged between Washington and Tokyo regarding the disposition of the Island of Yap has been published. It leaves Japan in the most unpleasant position that might have been suspected. The foreign office at Tokyo is revealed in the role of a rather narrow-minded bully, resorting to uncouth and impolite terms to defend an advantage it imagines itself to possess.

Just why Japan desired publication of these notes is not apparent. They weaken her position rather than strengthen it. They have exposed her as adopting the old blundering methods of the German Kaiser, unrestrained by the diplomatic finesse of his foreign office. Indeed, Japan seems to have avoided diplomacy in her communications on this subject and to have resorted to bluff and threats that easily may be interpreted as indicating a desire for an active quarrel.

Japan takes the position, stripped of all circumstance, that it was quite right for four members of the Allied Supreme Council to dispose of the fruits of the military victory over the Central Powers without the consent of and in disregard of the protest of the fifth member. The four members were Japan, Great Britain, France and Italy. The fifth member conspired against was the United States.

This stand carries the assumption that the United States was not an associated power of the Allied group in the war against Germany; that it was referred to in article 119 of the Treaty of Versailles, declaring that "Germany renounces in favor of the principal allied and associate powers all her rights over her over-sea possessions, including therein the groups of islands in the Pacific ocean lying north of the Equator."

The position Japan has taken denies the United States the right of participation in these territorial fruits of the military victory.

Will the allied governments attempt to sustain and support Japan in this position? Will they ignore the moral considerations as well as the legal considerations in this controversy? If they do, they will say in effect that the United States rendered them no service financially, in supplying foodstuffs and military equipment, nor on the battlefields of Europe. They will ignore the fact that Japan's effort in the war was mainly confined to seizing undefended territory in her immediate vicinity and in fostering anti-allied sentiment of an extremely dangerous nature in 1916.

France has already gone on record in a categorical manner in favor of the American contention. Great Britain seems to hesitate, apparently because of her involvements with Japan through the Anglo-Japanese alliance and other undertakings. Yet the issue is so clearly drawn and based in such vital historic facts that hesitation and evasion of the issue cannot possibly aid Great Britain.

Japan says that the Allied Supreme Council gave her the Island of Yap and that the protest of the United States against the award is without merit and undeserving of serious consideration. Against this stand is arrayed the American government, whose position is clearly and unmistakably defined in the joint note of Secretary Hughes to Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan of April 5th. One government must modify its position. The world must soon know which.

Japan's desire for publication of the notes exchanged apparently is a part of a scheme to arouse public sentiment in Japan against this country and in the future which will follow gain new strength for the military party and the expansionists at Tokyo.

It is dangerous, mischievous business, emphasizing the fact that the disturbing character of Japan in the family of nations requires continual watchfulness and preparation.

A CITY PLANNING COMMISSION.
After many months of delay a city planning commission has been created in Oakland. Typical of many other events in the city government, this came about in an unusual and unexpected way.

But there are more important aspects to this subject than the manner of its official birth. A city planning commission is needed in Oakland. It has been needed for a long time. Under a provision of State law the city council possesses the discretionary power to create such a commission. The members who have been selected to compose this commission are on the whole very satisfactory. Messrs. Lafier, Jones, Knowles and Maiden have been active for a long time in civic improvement and they command the confidence of their fellow-citizens. It is provided that one member shall be a member of the city council, and as to this fifth member there must always be a certain quality of chance and speculation as to his fitness.

Thus it is important not to dwell so much upon the sudden realization of this long standing need of Oakland but to feel genuine gratification that a city planning commission has been constituted with four of the five members specially equipped for such work and representing high types of leadership in their respective professions and businesses.

TARIFF PROTECTION SPREADS.

Attention was called a few days ago to the extension of the tariff protection principle in Japan, aimed to prevent competition of Java and China sugar and American iron and steel with native products. Other countries in the Pacific basin are recognizing the timeliness of protection for domestic industry.

Consul General Thomas Sammons at Melbourne, Australia, reports the new steps taken by the Australian commonwealth to meet foreign competition. The protective policy was inaugurated in March, 1920, in a legislative act imposing a new tariff on wearing apparel and textiles and metals and manufactured metal products. The tariff of the first class ranges from 15 to 35 per cent, and on the second class from 10 to 40 per cent.

Mr. Sammons reports to the consular bureau at Washington that the effect of this new tariff upon American business has been serious in many lines. At present the effect has been somewhat lessened by the demand for American machinery to supply the new factories and industries that are being established as the result of the high protective tariff, and it seems that in the future goods will not be so much in demand from the United States as the tools and machinery wherewith to make these clothes. The effect of the tariff will continue to be felt, he says, after exchange conditions have returned to normal, and will make necessary readjustment of American plans with regard to Australian business.

Last calendar year the United States took 150,000,000 pounds of wool from Australia, 394,000,000 pounds from Argentina and 120,000,000 pounds from British South Africa. This wool came in under the exceedingly low tariff schedule enacted by the Wilson administration. As a consequence American wool growers are at present unable to dispose of their clip at any price. Manufactured cloth from this imported wool now cannot be sent back to Australia except at the payment of a heavy tariff, adopted to encourage and foster the textile industry in Australia.

The people of Australia are entirely right in decreeing protection for their own industries. They must establish a condition under which those industries can meet foreign imports and thrive. Tariff duties are the only effective instruments for obtaining such protection.

But it is necessary for the American government to recognize the necessity now at hand to effect a co-ordinating readjustment of its protective system. Not only must our own textile industries be protected, but we must save the stock-raising, the wool-growing and agricultural industries.

There are still low-tariff and free-trade advocates in this country. They insist at times in imposing their views upon the nation. But if the people of the United States bear in mind that protection for all the industries is likewise protection for all workers, there will be much less controversy about the new tariff schedule which Congress has undertaken to formulate than was recorded on previous considerations of this important subject.

THE GEORGIA PEONAGE CASE.

Those who find it difficult to understand how a jury could discover cause for a recommendation of mercy in behalf of a man whom at the same time it had convicted of the brutal murder of a poor slave, one of eleven who had been similarly murdered, should bear in mind that under Georgia law and usage the question in this case was not really one of mercy, but of the obtaining of a verdict and the infliction of a penalty which would be as nearly as possible commensurate with the crime. Under all the circumstances, the verdict and the sentence—and perhaps still more the abundant evidence that the best and dominant sentiment in Georgia heartily supported the judgment to award justice to the case—are very encouraging. It must be remembered that there was no other witness against Williams, the pliant, the flatterer, the negro peon William Manning. A jury of white men, all racially and socially sympathetic with the accused planter, has found on this evidence a verdict which carries with it a sentence of imprisonment for the remainder of his life.

The enforcement of justice in this peculiarly difficult direction. It must also be remembered that proceedings are still to be taken in the case of the victims of this butchery in Jasper county, where the majority of the crimes took place.

It may be hoped that the verdict, and the punishment of the peon-master in the case, is indeed but a beginning toward ridding Georgia, the other Southern States, and the honor of the republic, of this terrible plague of peonage. It has grown, as a sort of pendant and echo of African slavery, out of the contract labor system, which permits fines to be worked out and offenders to be exiled under a system of rent-out contracts. As this case has proved, the system leads to the most terrible abuses. By the arousing of public sentiment against it in the South itself, the end of the evil may be attained and the nation's record purged of the shame.—Boston Transcript.

NOTES and COMMENT

The National Federation of Construction Industries of Chicago is to exert itself to restore public confidence in the building and construction industries. It is more or less a fact that the country is on strike as to building. The Chicago association's line of action is plain enough. All it has to do is to fetch down the cost of building within hailing distance. The strike is against the cost. There is no animosity against builders as persons.

How it is coming to be may be shown by the statement of President Sullivan of the Bar Association, who advocates licensing everybody who essays to do anything. The question is how that would benefit those trying to achieve ends by honest effort. There is no doubt but it would furnish jobs for a considerable army of persons in keeping track of licenses and arresting the criminals who made the mistake of working without first obtaining permission of the license bureau.

The farther along they get, or attempt to get the more they are to congratulate that the United States dickered the League of Nations. But other nations are not to assume that they are free to do as they please in matters that affect this country because we did not join up. Uncle Sam will have the same say that he would have had had there been no attempt to establish a League of Nations.

After having pledged herself to accept the White decision as to the boundary between Panama and Costa Rica, Panama recants and regards the argument as a scrap of paper. It won't take as long to show that this scrap of paper has a value as it took in the other instance, but the outcome will be just as definite.

Secretary Hughes is proving to be something of an epigrammatist. Or perhaps it would come nearer to say that he is exercising a considerable talent in that direction on big national things. His denouncing Russia as "a gigantic economic vacuum" is a neat expression of a condition that will be understood at once.

According to the dispatches, they have a Pancho Villa in Berlin. At least they ambitiously call him that, though when they tell how three policemen confronted him with "Hands up or we shoot!" the likeness fades. The men never rounded up Pancho and if they had he would have begun the fusillade before they got around to the "or we shoot" clause. It should be borne in mind that the bandits of this continent are brief and laconic.

Sacramento has received a new kind of boost. A vagrant was given his choice of leaving town or going to jail for thirty days, and loyally declared that he would rather be in jail in Sacramento than free in any other city. He may be a real good fellow, but he is not ready to leave Sacramento. Other cities would rather Sacramento vagrants would make such choice. The facts stand to be made the most of by those whose business it is to sing to the world of the advantages and attractions of the capital city.

The French are certainly having their fun. They waited fifty years, which may be evidence that they are good waiters; but their attitude now indicates that they are not ready to forget. They hunkled down and paid the indemnity the Germans imposed, enormous and almost impossible as it seemed, and they evince a purpose to see that the Germans do not fudge, now that it is the other way around.

Reckless auto drivers do not always get away with it. Sometimes they smash into official vehicles, and then there is likely to be a summary reckoning, as there was in San Francisco last Saturday night, when one drove his machine into a municipal car and was put in jail. But the great body of wayfarers who go out on the road in cars are not likely to be satisfied with such solitary instances. Besides, the careless driver, in some considerable degree, knows when not to smash into another.

D'Annunzio has married the last one, and for more than a month has not set up a new government anywhere after the manner of his previous enterprises. The next startling thing we may hear is that he has resumed the writing of poetry.

Ontario is to vote on barring liquor. There seems to be a disposition all along the line to take the joy out of life for the booze fighter. The neighboring province seems to be deterred not at all by the fact that this is going to be hard on Detroit.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS.

"California" has become a stock topic in international discussions, like "China," "disarmament," "mandates" and the like. And if we look at the state board of control's map showing the extent of the Japaneseization of California, we can realize the importance that is being given to the matter as well as to California in international affairs.—Fresno Republican.

A Texas editor says the spring season there is bursting. Well, with the song of the birds, the pickaninies lapping up the pollster, the sugar-corn getting ripe and watermelons coming in soon by the million, and a lot of good editors scattered around, why in blazes should it burst?—Richmond Record-Herald.

Varied are the duties of a police officer, but it would seem that the first has been reached by an Oakland mother who summoned an officer by phone, and when he arrived was informed by the anxious parent that she needed his help to give her little son a dose of castor oil.—Vacaville Reporter.

GET A RAKE

Swinging a golf stick is fine for humans, of course, but did you ever try swinging a garden rake in lieu thereof? Relatively few have opportunity to play golf or tennis or even croquet; nearly everyone, however, except flat dwellers and homeless transients, can get his hands on a rake.
A city of homes is also a city of yards and flowers and gardens and vegetable plots. While the female head of the family piles brooms and duster in her annual housecleaning rite, the male head should lose no time jumping into his annual yardcleaning. A neat homestead set in a rubbishy plot of ground is a contradiction in terms, something like a stylish top hat worn above a shaggy, unshaven face.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

About YOUR HEALTH

Just What Can Be Done to Remedy Bane of Psoriasis
By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D., Commissioner of Health, New York City.
There are several diseases of the skin characterized by redness of the surfaces and more or less extensive scaling. The chief of these is called "psoriasis."
In this disease there are round, well defined patches of redness, covered with scales, silvery in appearance.
In the beginning there may be very small scale-covered spots. At first these spots may be the size of the head of a pin. These grow larger and a number of the small spots may form into a big one.
The affected spots are raised a little above the natural level of the skin. The scales can be scraped off easily, possibly leaving a few bleeding points.
It is not uncommon to find the knees and elbows affected. Sometimes the scalp is involved. The palms of the hands and the soles of the feet are rarely attacked, occasionally the finger-nails are included in the invasion. Indeed, any part of the body may be diseased, although psoriasis rarely appears on the face.
There is little itching, as a rule, and the parts affected are dry. The disease has been described as looking as if mortar had splashed the surface and dried there.
Sometimes a patch of psoriasis will heal in the center, leaving a ring of diseased skin.
No scars are left after the sore spots have healed.
The cause of psoriasis is one of the mysteries of medicine. Heredity appears to be a factor.
Kidney diseases and gout have been considered as influencing the disease. Parasites have also been thought casual factors. Relapses are common in nervous persons. It is not uncommon for some persons to have attacks every spring and fall.
The disease is probably not contagious nor infectious. It is rare to find two cases in one generation of the same family.
It must not be overlooked that focal infection may be responsible for the trouble. On this account the condition of the teeth, gums, tonsils and nasal sinuses is important. Likewise the kidneys and bowels must be considered as possible factors in the disease. Chronic constipation with absorption of fecal poisons must not be forgotten as a source of danger.
If constipation is present every attention should be given the diet, and a simple treatment given to correct this condition.
The skin should be soaked in hot water and soft soap, to which has been added borax or bicarbonate of soda. With this solution and a hard brush all the scales should be removed. Then ammoniated mercurial ointment may be applied, or five grains of salicylic acid may be added to an ounce of the mercurial ointment.
The patient should have a low protein diet, avoiding eggs, meat.

HAMILTON BROWN, 13, IS WITNESS IN DIVORCE ACTION

And Testifies in Behalf of Mother and Tells of Father's Actions.

Hamilton Brown, 13-year-old boy
Scout, a son of Herbert Hamilton
Brown, wealthy San Francisco clubman, took the witness stand in Superior Judge Koford's court this morning on behalf of his mother, Mrs. Florence Sharon Brown, Piedmont society woman, in her suit for divorce and alimony of $800 a month.

After a brief examination of the boy witness by Peter J. Crosby, attorney for his mother, M. C. Chapman, chief counsel for Brown, waived cross-examination, and Mrs.
Brown once more took the witness stand and answered a fire of questions propounded by her husband's lawyer. When court adjourned
Mrs. Brown was still on the stand.
Questioned by Attorney Crosby, Hamilton Brown said that he was living with his mother at 337 Junipero avenue, Piedmont. He testified that he left his mother and went to live with his father at the Piedmont home as the result of a decision reached by himself.

DECIDES TO JOIN FATHER
"I talked with my mother at Carmel-by-the-Sea before coming to live with father. My mother could not decide whether Billy or I were to go, and I decided I would go. I told her that Billy was younger than I was and it would be better for me to go to father."

"You remember when you had influenza?" asked Attorney Crosby.

"Yes," replied Billy.

"Do you remember if there was anything peculiar about your father
at this time?"

"Yes. One night he came into my bedroom and tried to make me get up. Sister told him that I was sick and could not get up."

"Where was your mother at this time?" continued the attorney.

"She was at a lecture in Piedmont," answered the witness.

"Do you remember anything else peculiar about your father, at any other time?"

"Yes."

TOO ROUGH AT PLAY
"When playing with my brother
and myself he used to get too rough."

Hamilton testified that on several occasions his father drank liquor.
He said, however, that since he left his mother and came to live with the defendant he had not seen him drink anything. Hamilton corroborated the testimony of other witnesses that the defendant had Brown's alleged intoxication was a flushed face and glassy eyes.

Attorney Crosby asked the witness if he had any choice as to whether he would live with his mother or father. At this point Attorney Chapman objected to the witness answering, but the court overruled
the objection. Judge Koford specified, however, that the lad was not required to answer. The question was read by the stenographer, and Hamilton answered:

"I could rather live with my mother."

LIKES MOTHER BETTER
"I like my mother better, and my father isn't treating her right," said
the boy.

Crosby turned the witness over to Chapman for cross-examination.

Only two questions were propounded by Chapman, who waived his privilege to cross-examine the boy.

"You are very much attached to your mother, aren't you, Hamilton," asked Brown's counsel.

"Yes," said Hamilton.

"You love her very much, don't you?" persisted the questioner.

"Yes, I do."

Chapman then addressed the court:

"I waive my right to cross-examine this child," he said. "I will not stand for his testifying against his mother."

"That's up to you, Mr. Chapman," said Crosby, who cross-examined him or not, just as you see fit."

"We have already stated," said
Chapman, with considerable fire,
"that we decline to use this boy to testify against his mother. That's all we have to say."

While her child was on the stand,
Mrs. Brown sat with her head bowed, apparently disinterested and ignoring the proceedings.

MRS. BROWN RECALLED
After her son had been the witness stand Mrs. Brown resumed it under

YOUTH OF 19-ON TRIAL FOR MURDER OF AGED-WOMAN

The trial of 19-year-old John H.
Baker, who confessed that he killed
Emily Turner, aged 77, at her ranch
on Fish ranch road, east of Berkeley,
began today before Superior Judge Linn S. Church with the selection of the jurors to hear the murder case.

Attorney Frank W. Hooper, representing Baker, declared that he would enter an insanity defense. He said that no sane person would have so boldly, coldly and calculatingly killed the old lady, thrown her body in the well and then have remained on the premises to sell her cattle.

Those who will appear as witnesses
for the state are Corporal Herman Ruentsch, who went down into the well after the body; Dr. O. D. Hamlin, who performed the autopsy; Edward Turner, son of the murdered woman; H. J. Reisman, whom Baker tried to sell the cows, and Inspector Robinson.

Further cross-examination by her husband's lawyers.

Before beginning his questioning of this witness, Chapman said that if Crosby planned on recalling Hamilton Brown by his wife, he would desire that he be excused from court while his mother testified.
Judge Koford excused the lad and he left the court room with his grandmother, Mrs. Sharon. Mrs.
Brown's mother, a several letters
purported to have been written Brown by his wife were introduced by Chapman. One of these he locally typified as a "Sunday-Monday" letter. Another was alleged to have been written Brown by his wife on the first morning that prohibition went into effect. "I wonder if you had a big time last night?" said the letter.

"UNDER INFLUENCE"
A few minutes before the noon recess Chapman succeeded in having Mrs. Brown admit that at a party and saying "never mind, dearie, I feel the same way myself."

"No," replied the witness. "I do not."

NEW PLAN USED TO BOOST U. OF C. OFFICE SEEKERS

BERKLEY, April 18.—Something new in elections was introduced at the University of California yesterday with the announcement of public meetings to support the three men who are candidates for the office of student-body president. In the past the system of elections has been criticized because of the secret manner in which the "campaigning" was handled, but today's campaign mark
a new era in college politics.

The open meetings have the sanction of the college officials and of the student committees in charge of student-body affairs. The gatherings were held in class rooms in the college buildings and were all well attended. Speakers were chosen who outlined the past achievements of their candidate and urged his election.

Competition for the highest student office is very keen. F. W. Tonney, editor of the Blue and Gold;
Jack Butler, member of the student affairs committee, and H. M. Griffiths, debating leader, being candidates for the position. Elections will be held tomorrow, at which time two members of the executive committee
and a yell leader will be chosen.

HUSBAND RELENTS; RUNAWAY WIFE IS FREED FROM JAIL

Family Is Reunited; Man in Case To Be Sent To Canada.

After spending the night in the city jail with her 6-year-old daughter, Mrs. Ronie Bruno, who with Norman Walker, arrested last night by Thomas Brune, the woman's husband, was today reunited with Bruno, and their marital difficulties
were patched up.

Walker and Bruno were old friends
in Canada. Bruno came to the United States and settled in San Francisco. Four months ago Walker came to visit Bruno at his home at 540 Kearney street, San Francisco.
He lived in the Bruno house for several weeks.

According to Police Inspectors Thomas Wood and Con Keefe, who investigated the case, Bruno and his wife had a quarrel. In the investigation it developed that Mrs. Bruno loved his wife and Walker when they lived together in Long Beach, where they lived in separate apartments. Mrs. Bruno took her 6-year-old daughter with her on the trip.

Walker told the police he sent a postal card to Salt Lake, enclosed in an envelope, to a friend, who in turn forwarded it to Bruno. Bruno located his wife and Walker when they sold his machine. Through the Long Beach police he found out that they were leaving there for San Francisco.
When the train bearing Walker and Mrs. Bruno arrived in Oakland last night the runaways were met by Bruno, who arrested them and turned them over to Police Officer E. J.
Gohin.

Today Bruno refused to swear out
a warrant against his wife or his former friend. The migration officials were notified and they gave Walker the choice of leaving for Canada or being taken to Angel Island. Walker expressed his willingness to go back to Canada, as his passport had almost expired. The police, it is understood, will see that he starts for Canada today.

When Bruno met his wife in the city prison today he embraced her
and his little daughter affectionately.
The wife broke down and sobbed.

AID OF COURT IS SOUGHT IN BIG RICE LAND DEAL

Purchasers Claim Productivity
Misrepresented; Relief
Asked On Note.

That the Superior Court make a true accounting in a $400,000 deal involving the purchase of rice lands
in Glenn county, is the plea of Alva
Page, Ed C. Page and Willard
W. and Anna M. White made in a complaint against M. E. Bryant and
W. J. Pearson just filed here.

The plaintiffs charge that Pearson falsely represented that the property was capable of producing 60,000
sacks of rice in 1920 and that in three years he harvested $500,000, whereas a much smaller sum propo-tionately has been realized by the purchasers.

Page and White purchased the property in question giving a note
for $160,000, property for $240,000
and other securities. When the property did not produce as expected, it involved the purchasers in financial difficulties and they were unable to make the payments. They now charge that M. E. Bryant, a representative of Pearson, has taken possession of the place.

Dunn, White and Aiken represent the plaintiffs in the case. The case will be heard Wednesday before Judge A. F. St. Sure.

Wife Says Husband Blacked Her Eyes

On the day that they were married Edmondo Rossi hit his newly acquired wife in the ear and blacked
her eye, according to charges made in a divorce complaint just filed by Leonora K. Rossi of 2509 Grove street, South Berkeley.

Mrs. Rossi also alleges that on January 14, eight days after they were married, on January 6, 1917, her husband treated her cruelly and brutally and blacked her eyes. On February 14 she says that she was forced to flee from home because of threats made by Rossi that he would kill her.

Mary Otterson of 1021 One Hundred and fifth avenue, in her divorce action against John Otterson, asks $150 a month and custody of Lawrence, aged 14; Herbert, aged 9, and Raymond, aged 6 years. They were married December 22, 1903, and separated January 31, 1921. She also charges he called her vile names. Her bill was set at $3000.

Fleeing Boy Turns Out To Be Girl

BOSTON, April 18.—Pursuing a "youth" attired in khaki breeches, sweater and cap and smoking a cigarette, who aroused his suspicions, Patrolman Fitzpatrick of the Somerville police was startled when the cap fell off and a mass of long blond hair fell about the supposed youth's shoulders. Then the disguise was explained. The "boy" proved to be 17-year-old Virginia Girard, on parole from one of the state industrial institutions.

MAN ACCUSED OF INSULT BY WOMAN HALTED BY SHOT

Twice Escapes Capture By Ruse; Held For Battery and Disturbing Peace.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Attacked on the street by a man who she says made an insulting remark, Mrs. Lewis, of 212 Leavenworth street, set up a hue and cry early today which resulted in the arrest of Herbert Young, a laborer, who was charged with battery and disturbing the peace. Young's capture was not effected until after an automobile chase in which Patrolman William F. Bennett of the Bush-street station emptied his revolver at the fugitive. By means of a ruse, Young twice escaped the clutches of Bennett and citizens who halted him in his flight. Lewis was about to enter her apartment when she says, Young insulted her. When she protested, she claims he struck her twice in the face. Then he began to run. She cried after him and three men stopped him on Turk street, near Hyde. He said he was chasing a negro who had insulted his wife and was allowed to proceed. Bennett in a small automobile was patrolling the neighborhood, and he also stopped Young, being given the same story. He, too, allowed the man to go, but was later halted by Mrs. Lewis and took her in the machine for a search. At Seventh and Market streets Young was seen running and Bennett pursued. The fugitive ran up Stevenson street and through a vacant lot and the officer fired on him, finally chasing him down Jessie street to Seventh and Mission, where he was taken into custody.

Army To Commission 4000 Lieutenants

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Four thousand vacancies in the army for first and second lieutenants are to be filled from examinations beginning next Monday, April 25, according to announcement today from the Western Department headquarters. The 1000 highest records will be immediately commissioned first lieutenants, the next 1500 second lieutenants and the remainder will be commissioned later. Candidates must have their necessary application papers before next Monday, according to the announcement. Information concerning the examination will be supplied by the Adjutant, Ninth Corps Area headquarters, Santa Fe building, San Francisco.

A LIFE SAVER

European Russia's loss of life from the war was greater than that of Germany and Austria-Hungary combined. "And not only must you do it for your own sake, but you owe it to others, too. You may search the length of the city and you won't find anything like it. I have been told by loads of my friends about it, but never 'cashed in' on it, till I actually went down to be convinced. From now on I know where to go and how to buy."

"Which store did you go to?"

"Why to Cherry's (the store for women is at 515 13th street; the men's and boys' store, 528 13th street), and got absolutely everything I needed in the way of ready-to-wear apparel on credit. Just a small amount down and the rest as I get paid. I've got loads of pretty clothes now and I'm going to keep on getting more. Finding Cherry's was certainly a life saver."—Advertisement.

Vigorous Prosecution of Bootleggers Is Promised

U. S. Commissioner Hardie Tells of Policy To Be Pursued in Cases Here.

Vigorous prosecution of all bootleggers was promised today by United States Commissioner Albert M. Hardie of Berkeley, who was in consultation for a short time with Chief of Police Fenton Thompson. A suggestion has been made that Hardie's courtroom be located in the city hall, and if quarters can be made available, he expects to begin work there on Monday morning. "If I am going to strictly enforce the national prohibition act so far as lies in my power," said the commissioner. "My experience as United States attorney in prosecuting liquor violators will, I think, aid me in deciding on the merits of cases which will be brought before me. I am familiar with all the tricks of the bootleggers. I have had instances of shifting of licenses, the dodging behind bills of sale and frequent moving around of violators of the prohibition regulations, and I shall be on the lookout for them. You can say for me that whenever there is any showing of probable cause I will hold the defendant to answer."

Hardie went to San Francisco today to finish some work pending in the United States attorney's office. He expects to have his cases closed by Saturday, and on Monday next will actually begin his work as United States commissioner for the county of Alameda.

DISORDERS IN ITALY RESULT IN BLOODSHED

Score Killed in Fighting Between Nationalists and Communists.

ROME, April 19.—Conditions of disorder are reported from Northern Italy, where parties of extreme Nationalists have been in armed conflict with Socialists and Communists almost daily for the past week. The disorders, which are the outgrowth of a partisan feeling aroused by the electoral campaign now in progress, appear to center about Florence and other Tuscan cities. Upwards of a score of persons were killed in melees on Sunday and there were several ambushes and running fights during the day. General strikes have been called in a number of cities, where there has been bloodshed in recent fights.

James Woods, Hotel Man, Seriously Ill

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—James Woods, former manager of the St. Francis Hotel and now managing director of two New York hostels, is seriously ill at the Hotel del Monte. With the arrival here of a delegation of eastern hotel men in connection with a "See America First" campaign, it was reported that Woods was suddenly seized with illness and two physicians and two nurses called in to attend him. Prior to leaving for the East, Woods was prominent in society and political circles and was a member of the Board of Police Commissioners.

Army To Commission 4000 Lieutenants

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Four thousand vacancies in the army for first and second lieutenants are to be filled from examinations beginning next Monday, April 25, according to announcement today from the Western Department headquarters. The 1000 highest records will be immediately commissioned first lieutenants, the next 1500 second lieutenants and the remainder will be commissioned later. Candidates must have their necessary application papers before next Monday, according to the announcement. Information concerning the examination will be supplied by the Adjutant, Ninth Corps Area headquarters, Santa Fe building, San Francisco.

A LIFE SAVER

European Russia's loss of life from the war was greater than that of Germany and Austria-Hungary combined. "And not only must you do it for your own sake, but you owe it to others, too. You may search the length of the city and you won't find anything like it. I have been told by loads of my friends about it, but never 'cashed in' on it, till I actually went down to be convinced. From now on I know where to go and how to buy."

"Which store did you go to?"

"Why to Cherry's (the store for women is at 515 13th street; the men's and boys' store, 528 13th street), and got absolutely everything I needed in the way of ready-to-wear apparel on credit. Just a small amount down and the rest as I get paid. I've got loads of pretty clothes now and I'm going to keep on getting more. Finding Cherry's was certainly a life saver."—Advertisement.

The legitimate use of the word "Best"

AMONG advertisers it has become an unwritten law that the word "best" should never be used in talking about one's own product. Anybody can claim to be "best". But getting the public to believe it is another matter.

Thousands of tire dealers today carry no other tires but United States. Thousands more are arranging their stocks so that they may become 100% U. S. dealers within the next few months.

We are in a year, not only of better tires, but of better tire service.

The only way a manufacturer honestly knows his product is "best" is when millions of people give it their unanimous O. K.

This is just as true of tires as anything else.

Notice how many U. S. Royal Cord Tires you see in your own community. Notice, too, that when a man has one Royal Cord on his car, he generally has four—and maybe a spare or two besides.

Stroll along any Automobile Row in the country, and see how many different cars are making Royal Cord Tires one of the attractions.

Hob-nob with a U. S. Tire dealer and listen to what he says.

No motorist today needs to experiment with tires unless he wants to.

Any man who has had enough of "bargains", "surplus stocks" and "discount offers" can go to a U. S. dealer and get a fresh, live tire of current manufacture.

He can get economy of the kind that is based on a full money's worth. Not somebody's guess—not a purchase made on hope—but that surest of all saving that is backed by the good faith of the oldest and largest rubber company in the world.

PADDY SIGLIN GETTING MORE THAN HIS SHARE OF BASE HITS

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA ATHLETES GETTING INTO CONDITION FOR EASTERN COMPETITION

HACK MILLER SWINGING A MEAN CLUB FOR OAKS; BILLY LANE GOING GOOD

Plenty of Three Hundred Hitters At Present, But They Will Fade As Season Progresses

By EDDIE MURPHY

If Gavy Cravath hasn't a real ball club, he has a slugging infielder. Paddy Siglin is the leading batter of the Pacific Coast league as far as the averages for the first two weeks of the season show, and these averages include all games played to date. Tub Spencer, catcher for Seattle, tops the list of hitters, but he has been in three games less than Siglin. There are other batters who are listed below Siglin and who have played in more games, but the Bee second sacker has played in every game his team has taken part in. Spencer has an even .300 average, and there are more than three dozen others who are batting over the .300 mark, but like every other year, one-third of that bunch will be lucky to be in the select circle at the end of the season.

The Oakland club has three men in that class with Hack Miller at the head of the parade. He has been charged with forty times at bat to gather sixteen hits during the first week of the season. And these hits are not all that Hack is leading his teammates in for he has scored fourteen runs to be first with Nels Johnson of Sacramento for second honors in that department. Jimmy Johnson of the State holds the third place with sixteen hits and six runs on his teammates in cracking out two baggers, as he is second best in the league with seven. Cravath also topped him here with nine. In the team run hitting, Hack is tied with Pete Compton for top place with three.

The second best slugger for the Oaks is little Al White, their second sacker. He has cracked out two hits less than Hack and was at the plate the same number of times as his big teammate. His average is .280. The Knights of the other clubs are getting off to a good start and averaged a hit on every three times at the plate for .333.

Billy Lane Off To A Great Start For Seattle
Billy Lane, former Oak, who was traded to Seattle for "Socks" Seibold, is off to a grand start for Kenworth. Bill never got such a good start in his last few seasons with the Oaks, but the change has done him good. He has come in a lot of good. Besides hitting .343 in eleven games, Billy is also the top runner in the league and is first among the base stealers with eight.

Before the opening of the season, the Sacramento fans weren't so sure that Charley Fick would be a big hit for their club as they were at the end of rumors about him having a bum leg. But as long as Charley can swing the bat as he did the first couple of weeks, those Sacramento folks ought to be willing to stand for him. Fick got .24 hits during the first two weeks, and has an average of .343. But Charley hasn't a bum leg, and, like he was when with the Seals a couple of years ago, he promises to be the best all-around men in the league this season.

Ted Jourdan Is Hitting Ball Hard For Bees

Jimmy Cravath, the Seals' second sacker, is doing well in the Oakland category as he did with the Portland club, but Jimmy is also doing well in the Bees' category. He is the top runner in the league and is the biggest season since joining the Seals. Besides being well up among the heavy hitters, he is also the top runner in the league and is the biggest season since joining the Seals.

Dave Robertson Must Train For Two Weeks

CHICAGO, April 18.—Dave Robertson, outfielder, who was recently traded by the Chicago Cubs to the St. Louis Cardinals, must train two weeks somewhere before he can be released to the Cardinals. The Cardinals have announced today that Robertson will remain on the inactive list since he declined to get into condition.

Battling Ortega Boxes Al Somers At Helena Tonight

By BOB SHAND.
Battling Henry Ortega and Al Somers will step fifteen rounds—or less—at Helena, Mont., this evening, and the odds who chirp "or less" look to have the right punch. When Mr. Somers was four rounds in these parts he was a very ordinary middleweight and unless he has improved considerably in the last pair of years he should be duck soup for the sturdy Ortega. The Ortega entourage consisting of the Battling St. Simons and Al Somers will head for New Orleans immediately after the scrap tonight. Harry first of all, Malone will be the Battling's opponent before Dominick Tortorich's club.

It was Simpson's intention when he left here to return after the New Orleans fight, but there is no telling when Tommy will come home. Eastern promoters have offered fat purses for the Battling's services and there is a chance that he will go right on East. Then again there was a chatter about Brown and Ortega going to New York while Simpson came home to look after his interests. But Tommy has a lot of interests at home that are being sadly neglected during his absence.

The local lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose will entertain another boxing show on the evening of the 21st. The show promoted by Mel Moffitt, the other night was a great success and the members are clamoring for more action. Nobody knows where Moffitt is, but he is expected to be back here next time out. Some of the kids showed considerable knowledge of the game and with a little more experience will match up with the old-time four-rounders.

Oakland fight fans to a man feel that Georges Carpentier has made a big mistake. They can't see poor Georges at all and none of them will admit the Frenchman can go three rounds with Master Donkey. The chances are Georges feels the same way about it, but there are mighty few folks for $250,000, which Georges fondly expects will be his "bit."

Alameda School Boys To Stage Track Meet At Lincoln Park

The twelfth annual track meet of the Alameda school boys will be held at Lincoln park next Saturday at 2 p. m. In the previous years the meet has been held at various places, but this year the Alameda school has won honors twice.

This year the meet promises to be unusually close and the championship in each of the six weight classes will be closely contested. The 70-lb. 30-lb., 100-lb., 115-lb. and unlimited classes in each of the grammar school and high school meets, interweight meets and meets with weight teams from the high schools have been the order for the past six weeks.

During the physical education period, several of the received intensive training in the track events and from marks made them several records in the 100 and 200 yard races. The schools meet April 23.

The track meet this year will be for grades 6-12. The meet will be following the track meet, the prize which will be contested for will be now on display in the window of J. H. Wilkins in Park place. The prize will be awarded their school letter.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By BOB MORIARTY.

By defeating Oakland High in four out of five matches, the Oakland High School of University High School finished at the top of the heap in the first round of the city league and proved the first aggregation that has won from the Oakland sharks in six years of elimination play on the high school level.

The league finished with the two leaders as follows: W. L. Pet. University 17 4 .809 Oakland 16 5 .762

The "Technical" and "Herald" trailed the leaders far in the rear. The University team is composed of Steve Starns, Billie McGraw, Jacobs and Hayden.

In the scheduled contest with the William Warren School of Menlo Park, at the latter's diamond, the Tech nine swamped their hosts and ran out on the sweet end of a 21-1 tally. Gattamrino, the basketball player, surprised all the boys in the crowd by the entire party, allowing five runs.

Technical 21 2 .914 William Warren School 1 5 .167

GEORGES WILL SAIL FOR UNITED STATES MAY 7

By EDWIN HULLINGER.
United Press Staff Correspondent.
PARIS, April 19.—"Jack's got nothing on me; I, too, expect to win before the twelfth round."

Georges Carpentier, French pugilist, thus declared himself to the United Press today. On his return from a triumphant swing around Europe, Carpentier had been shown a clipping of a fight between him and a few pounds to be worked off during the training grind in the United States.

Manager Desamps said he is negotiating for training quarters somewhere along the shore near New York.

He left today for his old training camp at Legerbois. His long exhibition trip left him worn down to 173, a good fighting weight for him, and his greatest anxiety now is to add a few pounds to be worked off during the training grind in the United States.

CALIFORNIA CREW AND TRACK TEAM ASSURED OF TRIP TO THE EAST

Princeton To Row the Bears Before Classic Poughkeepsie Regatta.

By DOUG. MONTELL

Now that California has finished the big program of spring sports against her much hated rival, Stanford, the Bears are turning eastward in search of new fields to conquer. California is all ready to invade the east with her winning crew and likewise is sending a ten-man track team to the I. C. A. A. A. to gain added laurels for their alma mater. And the best part of it is that it looks as though these two aggregations of athletes should do it. Certainly there is no disputing but that the Bears have a wonderful chance of scoring among the highest in the intercollegiate track and field championships and there are also those who believe that the California crew will stand well up in the Poughkeepsie regatta.

Any way it is settled and arrangements are being made whereby the Bears will have a chance to perform more than once upon their eastern tour. Yesterday word was received by Graduate Manager Lute Nichols from Arnold Wood, manager of the crew of the University of Princeton, which confirmed the arrangements for a race between California and Princeton, preceding the Poughkeepsie regatta. This gives the California eight two races, one in the East and Coach Ben Wallis has already seen to it that his victorious crew will be kept in the best of shape while on the way East.

Both the track team and the crew are scheduled to leave Berkeley on May 14th. Two cars will take the party, one of which will be fitted up with a full rowing outfit so that the crew huskies can have their daily workouts en route. Coach Wallis is well satisfied that his men will be able to make a good showing against the Princeton crew.

As to what the track men Coach Walt Christie will designate as the ones to make the trip, Captain Pesky will head the list and Brick Muller will be next in order. Bob Hutchinson, captain-elect, Oxy Henderson and Harry McLean are next in order. If the Bears are to have a relay team entered it will be necessary to take another track star along. Herb Henderson is most talked of as the selection, on account of his ability to run the hurdles as well. This quartet, Sproit, McDonald, Henderson and Henderson, would strike up very nicely alongside of the eastern relay teams.

Walter Christie smiles these days and says nothing. He doesn't even guess at what he is likely to do in the matter of dividing up his talent. There has been much talk of attempting to arrange a dual meet with Harvard in the East, preceding the I. C. A. A. A., but nothing definite has been decided out of this as yet. Were such a case it might be suddenly decided to take a squad of fifteen men East in the track squad and give up all plans of entering any team in the Pacific Coast Conference meet this season. While the Bears are working on the matter of these things the track athletes are giving their muscles a rest and are busy trying to convert the fatuity of their scholastic ability. The better the athlete the better the scholar score, and this is a point to Brick Muller as an example. His Bricklets is just as great as his brains and he handles algebra, English and all the other studies with as much abandon as he does with the discus.

INDUSTRIAL AND FINANCIAL

OIL DIVISION EXTENDS GAINS IN WALL STREET

Textiles and Ford Shares Are Heavy; Sugars Lose One To Two Points.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Ours were again the outstanding features at the uncertain opening of today's stock market. Gains of 1 to 2½ points were registered by General Asphalt, Honsa-son, Steel Transport, Royal Dutch and

Standard Oil of New Jersey in the first few transactions. Otis Elevator, Calumet Packing, International Paper, Famous Players and Hensco Manufacturing also improved with several of the rails.

entials of prospective new financing. Bethlehem Steel, Baldwin Locomotive, United Fruit, Central Leather and Industrial Alcohol eased fractionally.

Steel beams showing hardening. Aluminum and coppers also hardened under load of Studebaker, Utah and Anaconda. Textiles and food shares were heavy, sugars losing 1 to 2 points on announcement of price reductions for refined products. Amer-

can. Wooden and Associated Dry goods, common and preferred, also reacted 1 to 2 points. Steels and equipments become moderately reactionary before noon. Rails were sympathetic and bonds of that class showed increasing heaviness.
 The market developed a more reacgenerary tendency at midday, despite the easier tone of money. Sugars, rubbers and equipments showed extreme losses of one to nearly five points, with New York Airbrake as the heaviest feature. Shippings and autos, notably mercantile Marine preferred and Northern Pacific, also fell much moderately.

Call money's decline to 6 per cent later exerted no perceptible influence. Steels and equipments continued to decline and some of the funds forfeited part of their gains. The closing was irregular. Sales approximated 175,000 shares.

Local Market Notes

any of the new crop is ready for market, according to word from the ranches. Cauliflower now to be had as from storage.

Strawberries marked another decline today, selling as low as $1 on drawers containing four large baskets. Preference is shown by most markets for the six-basket drawer as yet, because of the relatively high retail price and the manner in which the smaller basket is thought to stimulate trade. There were some Los Angeles crates in the market berries of good quality.

Asparagus weakened again today, best assorted white bringing no more than 8 per cent. The demand for asparagus continues good, however, the retailers report. The packing industry is not materially

As anticipated, a reduction of 7 cents was made in the poultry market again today, broilers being the kind of fowl to weaken. Fair broilers are now to be had cheaper than Imperial Valley lettuce in some quantity was in the Oakland market again today at prices ranging around $4 a crate. The offerings have been intermittent.

TONIGHT TO GET TRIBUNE RADIOSCorrespondents Will Send in News; Club Honors To
Be Awarded.Radio amateurs throughout the Eastbay cities are spending their spare time today getting their instruments in first-class tune in preparation for tonight, when the TRIBUNE amateur radio press service test will be carried out by the Bay Counties Radio Club.From about 8 o'clock this evening
until after midnight the station Central California will be filled with wireless waves, which, when interpreted by means of local amateur radio receiving outfits, will prove to be news despatches of TRIBUNE
correspondents from important cities
of Central California, including Sacramento, Stockton, San Jose, Vallejo, Richmond and other cities of this district.NEWS TO WIRELESS Correspondents of THE TRIBUNE
are to deliver the news of their respective districts into the hands of the wireless stations in their towns tonight. These amateur operators will immediately get in touch with one of the official stations named by the Bay Counties Radio Club and transmit the news given him by the correspondent to one of the Oakland stations.Although none but the stations selected by the Radio Club will be privileged to directly receive the messages sent in from the various towns, local radio amateurs are expected to "listen in" on the messages
being sent for Radio Club honors which will be given the amateur who secures, by listening in, the most complete report of the THE TRIB-UNE news.BRING COPY TO TRIBUNE
The wireless traffic will be directed by T. E. Carroll, secretary of the Bay Counties Radio Club, operating the wireless station of R. V. Tudhope at 4187 Manila avenue. Tudhope is a former president of the Bay Counties Radio Club.At the conclusion of the news transmission the operators will be sent a "QST" or broadcast message from Carroll advising them that the test is over and that no one was disrupted before 1 o'clock tomorrow morning the operators will immediately come downtown to the TRIBUNE building, Thirteenth and Franklin streets, bringing their news copy with them.Records will then be taken to show which of the stations received the largest part of the news by listening in. If the test is not completed before 1 a. m. the operators will not bring their news copy to the TRIBUNE until after 7 o'clock tomorrow.

Nevada Public Service Commission
complained today to the Interstate Commerce Commission against freight rates maintained by the Southern Pacific between points in California and that state and asked that an investigation be made.The Nevada commission said the same rates were maintained between San Francisco and Lovelock,
a distance of 345 miles, as between San Francisco and Reno, 244 miles, and that similar blanket rates were in force between points.

LAD IS ARRESTED

Glenn Lett, 17 years old, residing 1221 Pearl street, was arrested
this morning by Police Inspectors Joe Bright and Edward O'Donnell
on a charge of stealing an automobile from Bay Point. The warrant was sworn out in Martinez and Lett will be taken there today. He is alleged to have driven the machine from Bay Point to this city, where he stored it in a garage at Ninth and Market streets.WEDNESDAY

Fame as Scenario WriterALYSE HUNT WHITAKER, widow of Herman Whitaker, TRIBUNE war correspondent, who is succeeding in motion picture work.Alyse Hunt Whitaker Also Is Writing Book on Her Experiences in Guatemala's WildsNews comes from motion picture circles in Los Angeles that Alyse
Hunt Whitaker, widow of the late Herman Whitaker, famous novelist
and TRIBUNE war correspondent, is earning a name for herself as a continuity writer in the scenario department of the Goldwyn studios.
Also that she is following in her well-known husband's footsteps, according to a remark made to friends at the studio recently where she is not only writing continuity, but hard at work on a book of her experiences during a trip through the wilds of Guatemala with a motion-picture producing company."Oh, yes," she added, "here is a delightful little surprise. I have discovered that Clara Kimball Young is also a composer. It happened when Ed Kimball, familiarly known as "Dad" (her father), was out here
at the studio working in "Boys Will Be Boys," with Will Rogers. Knowing him very well, I showed him a verse that I had written and he suggested showing it to Miss Young, who liked it so well she was inspired to put it to music. The song was arranged by Kimball and we expect an early publication of the song."Mrs. Whitaker first became interested in motion pictures when she assisted with the continuity of her husband's book, "The Planter," and with him at that time began to realize that the screen is an instrument for limitless expression to the writer as well as the actor. After the author's death she left her home at 718 Scenic avenue, Piedmont, and joined the Goldwyn studio near Los Angeles. She has many colleagues

S. F. DEPOT THAT OF MME. GERLACOakland Clubwoman, Despondent and Destitute, Takes Own Life.Mme. Eugenia Gerlac, well-known club woman and scholar of Oakland,
was the woman whose body was discovered early Sunday morning in the Southern Pacific depot at Third and Townsend streets, San Francisco. The suicide of the brilliant woman is the sequence of several years of ill health and inability to find work by which to support her self. Positive identification of the body was made yesterday by Mrs.
Joseph Borroughs, 515 Haddon road, whose house guest Mme. Gerlac had been until recently.Some eight years ago Mme. Ger-lac came to Oakland, immediately
taking her place in scholarly circles. Mrs. Frank C. Havens, owner of "Wildwood," her Piedmont residence, for a series of drawing-room
lectures by the unusual French woman, the affections being among the smart affairs of that season.
Mme. Gerlac continued this work until the entrance of the United States into the war. A prominent member of Oakland Civic Center,
she was often referred to as "the French woman who knew the constitution of the United States better than Americans." Speaking several languages, she became a private instructor in her native tongue and German.More than a year ago Mme. Ger-lac underwent a serious operation.
She has since suffered from melancholy. For many months she has been seeking a secretarial position in connection with social service work.
Friends have aided her loyally in her efforts and offered her the hospitality of their homes.Applying to the Travelers Aid Society of California last Saturday night for assistance, Mme. Gerlac was provided with housing accommodations for the night. Her body was found the following morning at the Third and Townsend street depot, death having been caused from a death of poison.Mme. Gerlac had no relatives in California. She is known to have had a sister in New York. A woman of great reserve, Mme. Gerlac never discussed her past or family
with her most intimate friends, according to those who were closely connected with her.James Garfield's nomination came after he was prevented by a point of order from forbidding his name to go before the Republican convention in 1880.The case was investigated by Police Inspector Thomas Wood. Among some of the missing articles were:
One brown suit, one dark blue tailor-
made suit and a one-piece blue suit.
Mrs. Campbell was unable to give a complete list of the missing articles.
Eight other burglaries, three of which were in the same apartment
house, were also reported to the police during the night. The reports follow:Joseph Souza, 2903 San Pablo avenue, three suits taken.
Charles Howard, 515 Alice street, pair of shoes taken.

Attorney Bell Denies

Charges of McGowan's

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—
Categorical denial of the charges made by Mrs. Irma G. McGowan and her husband, George A. McGowan, which were contained in the answer
of Mr. and Mrs. McGowan to the suit for payment of a $5000 promissory note in favor of Attorney Theodore A. Bell was made today by Bell.
Mrs. McGowan is the mother of Mrs. Alice J. Brincken, Swenson, former wife of Lieutenant William Von Brincken, former German military attaché in San Francisco. She retained Bell to conduct Von Brincken's defense when he was arrested in connection with the Hindu plot cases in 1917.Bell holds the promissory note written by Mrs. McGowan in compensation for his work as Von Brincken's attorney and is suing for payment of it. In their answer to the suit, the McGowans charged Bell with "rough methods" in securing a confession from Mrs. Von Brincken that she aided her husband to direct the explosion of Alcatraz Island on July 9, 1917, in which five men were killed.These charges were today denied by Bell who termed them "absurd
and untrue."GROCERY STORE ROBBED.
Harry Ford, a grocer, who has a store at 6529 East Fourteenth street, last night lost $25 in the drawer of the cash register. This morning the money was missing. Entrance to the store had been gained by forcing the rear window.

Today Is Bad Day;
Many Great Wars
Began This DateNO matter how excited some folks
may get about the present battle of the ballots, it is a mere bagatelle compared to other battles waged on April 19 in the past, for April 19
is one of the most heroic days in American history.Today is the anniversary of the battle of Lexington, which started the Revolutionary War. It is also the anniversary of the first bloodshed of the bloody Civil War, for on this date the Ninth Massachusetts Infantry was attacked by a mob in Baltimore.April 19 is the date of several famous battles. Heroic things were done on this date in all wars, most of which, according to American history, either started on this date or were arranged for this date. The Mexican war, the Spanish-American war and even the great world war were practically started on or about this date.The present Oakland war, according to historians, is a mere bush
league affair.ARTICLES WORTH

JAPAN VISITORS OBLIGED TO GIVE
ACCOUNT OF LIFEThose Refusing To Fill Out Questionnaire Kept
Aboard Ship.Japanese port and civil authorities are continually drawing tighter the restrictions set for Americans and other foreigners in Japan, according to passengers arriving on the steamer Siberia. Within the last few weeks, in addition to passport information and requirements, the Japanese have presented to each person arriving in Japan a list of questions printed in Japanese and in the language of the country from which the prospective visitor to Japan may come.Copies of the question list brought in by the passengers, among them
F. M. Blanchard of Stockton, Cal., show that the Japanese are keeping close tab on their visitors from other shores. After ascertaining name, nationality, place of birth and pas-
port information, the questionnaire asks:Date of former visit and its place in Japan; residence, former residence, where boarded, destination
and purpose; father's name, mother's name, husband's name, wife's name.One significant question is always asked: "Connection in army or navy, if any."Several of the passengers, becoming peeved at the amount of Nip-ponese red tape, refused to answer
the questionnaire and were informed politely that they would be compelled to remain aboard the ship
while in Japanese waters.

Big Searchlight
To Be Installed
On TamalpaisA SEARCHLIGHT, 60 inches in diameter, has been shipped by the General Electric company of Schenectady, N. Y., for installation on Mount Tamalpais. This is one of the largest searchlights constructed, it is said, there being only two or three as large in use.The light was purchased by a joint organization of civic clubs of San Francisco to illuminate an amusement park. The rays of the searchlight will pick up a battleship
twelve miles at sea and is 500 times more powerful than the headlight
of a locomotive.FLUFFY RUFFLES WOULD BE BARREDBERKELEY, April 19.—All the frills of the co-eds' costume will be lacking at the University of California next semester if the members of the women's council have their way. The members of the incoming freshman class would be dressed plainly and severely and the now-favored high-heeled shoes and slender hose and clothing would be in disfavor.A circular has been sent to all high school women who are contemplating entering the university next semester and the girls which recommended included the following articles: Sport or tailor suits, cotton waists, low-heeled shoes and woolen or cotton stockings for campus wear. For summer days, wash dresses or cotton waists and skirts are approved.

OAKLAND'S FREE

LIBRARY BREAKS

RECORD IN MARCH

89,162 Books Are Withdrawn
From Institution For Home Reading.A new record for the number of books circulated in a month by the Oakland Free Library and the library branches throughout the city
was set during the month of March.
It was announced today by Librarian Charles S. Greene, following the completion of statistics concerning the public's patronage of library facilities for the month just closed.

During March 89,162 books were withdrawn from the library for reading at home. The highest record previously was that of March, 1917, when the figure was 88,993.This previous record includes the circulation of books in all of the branches of the Alameda County library throughout the rural districts, which was separated from the Oakland library shortly after ward.The new record thus shows, according to Librarian Greene, that Oakland has completely overcome the setback given the library in circulation by removal of the county branches from its jurisdiction, which amounts to some 20,000 volumes a month.
